CLASS POEM

We who graduate this year
Sixty-five in all,
Will try to work our way through life
Without a backward fall.

We will stand and face tomorrow
Alone and unafraid;
Striving and hoping and praying
To fulfill the plans we've made.

We will be ready to do our work,
To answer our country's needs
All the time remembering those
Who trained us for these deeds.

Yes, we will remember the past twelve years,
The teachers, classrooms and hall.
We'll never forget Wyoming High
To whom we owe it all.

CLASS SONG

NOW IS THE HOUR

Sunset glow fades in the west;
Night o'ver the valley is creeping !
Birds cuddle down in their nest;
Soon all the world will be sleeping. And

Now is the hour -- when we must say good-bye;
Soon you'll be sailing far across the sea.
While you're away, O, Then remember me,
When you return, you'll find me waiting here.

True lovers often must part;
Kiss me, Then leave me to sorrow!
Here, love, I give you my heart;
You will return some glad morrow. But

Now is the hour -- when we must say good-bye;
Soon you'll be sailing far across the sea.
While you're away, O, then remember me,
When you return, you'll find me waiting here.

class history

On September 7, 1955 the colors Blue and White were chosen to represent the class of '58. Our crew of sixty five was now ready to sail the rough waves of high school life. We feared nothing but the Junior and Senior Pirates,' who were always ready to send us retreating to the nearest island for safety. The reason for this necessary retreat was to avoid the initiation into senior high. While anchored in a quiet outlet, the Junior and Senior Pirates captured our crew and initiated them at the Sophomore Reception. Because of our belief in their ability, we chose the following as Captain and Mates: President, Steve Pineno; Vice-President, Cookie Koslick; Secretary, Betty Godlewicz; Treasurer, Joe Grebeck. Supervisors were Mrs. Claire Wyandt and Mr. K. R. Jones. After sailing smoothly for a month we came into port for the annual "Weiner Roast" at Wolf's Grove. Our next event was the play tournament. We defended ourselves by presenting "You Don't Belong to Me," directed by Mrs. Bryden. The crew who helped in making this play enjoyable was Barbara Parra, Barbara Marshall, Joan Harkovich, Frances Bayo, Allan Rapp, Gene Skursky, and Bill Watkins. The remainder of our first voyage was spent in deep thought and study except for our class trip to San Souci Park. The trip was on the last day of school. Most of the boys went swimming while the girls stayed nearer the shore to go on the various rides. Came June and we were in dry dock for three months.

class history

After our summer leave was over, we started out on our second voyage. To take command in our junior year we elected the following: President, Dick Miller; Vice-President, Janice MacDonald; Secretary, Ruby Dixon; Treasurer, Rinaldo Orlandini supervised by Miss Regina Mondlad and Mr. John Mills. Cookie Koslick was elected to replace Ruby Dixon as Secretary because Ruby moved to the Middlewest. Our crew was granted an evening's leave to once again attend the annual "Weiner Roast." Dick Miller, Stan Wateski, Zig Pieszala and Tom Endrusick helped to win the biggest football game of this year, the Thanksgiving Day game. Our next venture was the Gettysburg Trip. Our guides were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Russ and Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Jones. We docked in Harrisburg where we ate "chow" in the Governor's Room in the Penn Harris Hotel. After "chow" we sailed on to Gettysburg. At Gettysburg we visited the Cyclorama and toured the battle field. In the Spring of '57 we began making plans for the Junior Prom. On May 24 we sailed out to the island of Wyoming where our Prom was held. The gym was beautifully decorated in pastel shades. The music of Frankie Reynolds' Orchestra cast a romantic spell over all. This memorable evening brought a happy close to our second voyage.

class history

We left port for our third and final voyage of high school. We elected the following to guide us through our last year of high school life: President, Bill Watkins; Vice-President, Linda Hartman; Secretary, Ann Nardone; Treasurer, Mary Ann Savitsky. Our supervisors for this our last year were Mrs. G. Bryden and Mr. P. Podwika. Tom Endrusick and Barb Parra were chosen Editor and Assistant-Editor respectively. Because of the exciting time we had had at Wolf's Grove the past two years, we decided to dock there once again for our "Weiner Roast." Thanksgiving time came and together with the Booster Association we held the Harvest Hop. Music was provided by the famous Rock n' Roll All Stars. On December 13 we presented our senior play "Three Blind Dates" under the direction of Mrs. D. Mulhern. The cast was as follows: Barb Parra, Barb Marshall, Linda Hartman, Joan Harkovich, Janice MacDonald, Fran Bayo, Allan Rapp, Tom Turonis and John Marshock. Just before our Christmas leave, a party was held at TAC. Pictures were taken around the Christmas tree and everyone had a ball.

The next social event of the senior year was the crowning of the Queen and King of Hearts. Lois Dilfield and Stanley Wateski were crowned at a party held at TAC on February 15, 1958.

We studied hard for our final exams. While waiting for our marks, the gang stood around the juke box at Gina's and listened as it played "After School." We all came through with flying colors. The last event of our high school life and the last time we would all be together was the trip to New York. We had a swell time even though some of us had to come home the same day.

class history

The most important days of our life were now over and we still felt like seniors. It was really hard to believe that we are now graduates. Class Night and Commencement, so long awaited have both come and gone. We are now ready to sail the rough seas of life on our own.

class prophecy

On a beautiful afternoon in June of 1968, Mrs. Gilbert, Joanie Harkovich, and Mrs. Zack, Barb Marshall, former classmates from the class of '58, met accidentally in one of the department stores in Wilkes-Barre. They were astonished at the fact that they had been out of contact for ten years. Immediately the two women began talking and reminiscing about some of the good times they shared in high school. Both women finally decided that it would be nice to have lunch together, so off they strolled to the nearest restaurant.

While Joanie and Barb ate their lunch their conversation seemed to center on the whereabouts of their other classmates.

BARB - Tell me, Joanie, what did you do after you graduated from college?
JOANIE - I married a chemist who teaches at Notre Dame, and I have two children.
BARB - Oh! How wonderful! I'm married too. After I finished my nurses training I married a doctor who was interning at the same hospital. I have three children, two boys and a girl.
JOANIE - Say, What ever happened to Al Rapp? I wonder if he became the electrical engineer he longed to be.
BARB - Yes, he did. I believe he's now working for General Electric.
JOANIE - Did you hear the latest?
BARB - No.
JOANIE - Steve Pineno and Bing Lawley have gone into business for themselves. Their shop is located near Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Dorothy Bushkar is typist for their corporation.
BARB - Have you seen Cookie Koslick lately?
JOANIE - I just got a letter from her the other day. She's the head buyer for Saks, Fifth Avenue.
BARB - That great neuro-surgeon, Dr. Bill Watkins opened a new hospital last week. He has Barb Parra as his chief of staff and Jennie Fretti as his secretary. Pennie Pecht is medical secretary to the renowned psychologist Dr Geroge Bernard Kirchner, Ph D.
JOANNIE - Carm Mazzarella, Lois Dilfield, Geri Biagioli, Joyce Medlock, and Edythe Guilford have been sent to the Union of South Africa by the Walter Reed Hospital to care for the children who were stricken with an epidemic of German measles.
BARB - Gene Skursky was appointed the first Secretary of the Marines and as his undersecretary he has Lt. General Bob Fedorchak.
JOANIE - Dick Miller received a citation from the President for being the first man to travel to another planet. He and Gene Bushkar now make weekly trips to Mars and the Moon.
BARB - Ray Merenda, Kenneth Stevens, and John Marshock are working for the Strategic Air Command on intercontinental ballistic missiles. Richard Givens is assisting them as flight engineer.
JOANNIE - Carol Fritz has to resign as the head of Dupont's research laboratories now that she's been elected the first woman president of the United States.
BARB - Who is going to take her place at Dupont?
JOANIE - Two more of our former classmates are being considered. They're Tom Endrusick and Tom Tissue.
BARB - Do you have any idea as to what Walton Moffat is doing? Oh, by the way, I met Ruth Lahr last month. She's head journalist for the New York Times. Incidentally Ruby Dixon is her secretary. Excuse me for interrupting, what about Walton?
JOANIE - Why, I met him last month when I flew to Philadelphia. He and Lynn Keen are mechanical engineers at U. S. Steel.
BARB - Ray Fenner is working there too, isn't he?
JOANIE - Yes, he's one of their leading draftsmen. Guess who the stewardess on the plane was, Betty Tarapchak. She said that Mary Ann Savitsky is working on foreign flights now.
BARB - What about Linda Hartman and Janice MacDonald? Do you ever hear from either of them?
JOANIE - Linda never left Temple. She's nursing supervisor now. And Janice is on the nursing staff of the Medical College of Virginia. She really loves it there.

class prophecy

BARB - Fran Bayo stayed at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital. She and Lois Malecki room together.

JOANIE - What's Lois doing now?

BARB - She teaches kindergarten in a private school in Philadelphia. Sheila Haimes also teaches kindergarten. I think she's in Chester.

JOANIE - Did you know that Rear Admiral Ziggy Pieszala just returned from his tenth expedition to the South Pole?

BARB - Tom Turonis and Jack Stephenson were on that trip too, weren't they?

JOANIE - I really don't know. I thought Tom was Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific fleet and Jack was working in the Pentagon.

BARB - I understand they got special leaves of absence to go with the expedition.

JOANIE - By the way, did you see in the paper where Stan Wateski has been named head coach at Annapolis. He's the first Admiral in the history of the United States Navy to take over a head football coaching position.

BARB - Admiral Wayne Schollenberger is heading a party to develop an Aquamobile for the Navy. He's being assisted by Danny Ragantesi, Ronnie Ambrose, Walter Zelinski, William Reichert, and Richard Goode.

JOANIE - Have you seen the R & J Diner since Ronnie Orlandini expanded it? It's really huge! He does so much business that he had to hire Gloria Richards to do the bookkeeping. Jean Zavada is his secretary.

BARB - Speaking of secretaries, did you know that Ida Valenti is the private secretary to a New York importer of Italian hot peppers?

JOANIE - What about Ann Nardone? I thought she wanted to be a secretary too?

BARB - Remember Mike Santasania? He graduated two years before we did. Well, she's now Mrs. Mike Santasania.

JOANIE - Marie Marstell is a switchboard operator for the United Nations. I understand she has met almost every foreign dignitary who is of any importance.

BARB - JoAnn Leone is the head beautician for Metro-Goldyn-Mayer Studios. She designs the hair-dos for the movie stars and Bette Godlewicz is working there as private secretary to Helen Rose. Bette has also been doing some dress designing in her spare time.

JOANIE - Wasn't it wonderful about Connie Allegrucci's winning the Nobel Peace Prize this year for her discoveries in the field of bacteriology?

BARB - Yes. And I was thrilled when Joe Grebeck was inaugurated as President of Harvard University.

JOANNIE - And Donald Troy is a gas station magnate now. He owns a chain of gas stations throughout the United States, Canada and Alaska. He has Marie Sapiego doing his secretarial work. Rita Shura is his stenographer. If I remember correctly, Tom Sleboda and Al Pace are working for Uncle Sam in the Navy.

BARB - Oh, how the time flies, I really must be going. Call soon. Bye.

The game was well played with half time score 6-0 in favor of the Rams. In the second half the Rams were just too much for the Wyoming eleven and came through with a 33-0 victory. After losing two games the Redskins came back with a smashing win over their non-conference rivals, Pittston, with a score of 39-26.

On October 25 - Wyoming went to Forty-Fort to play one of the best games Wyoming played this season. Wyoming was a two touchdown underdog, but came through with a high scoring victory of 38-20.

On November 9 - Wyoming traveled to Exeter and tasted their third and last defeat of the season by bowing to Exeter 12-7.

On November 16 - the back mountain boys of Westmorland came to the Wyoming Stadium to try for their second victory in a row over the Redskins. It was a close game right to the end, but Podwika's "Cinderella Boys" came through with a 6 pointer to win the game 6-2.

On November 28 - the Annual Wyoming-West Wyoming Turkey Day Classic got underway. West Wyoming put up a tough battle, but they were no match for Wyoming's strong offense and defense. Coach Podwika's boys came through with a smashing victory, 20-0. Wyoming Redskins ended their football season with a 6-3 record which took third place in the West Side Conference.

We the members of the football team would like to thank Mr. Podwika, our coach, and Mr. Zinkavich, our assitant coach, for a job well done.
